SCOTT ON MONEY.

The West Virginian Says Republi cans Are Glad to Meet the Issue.

FREE SILVER IS FOR ONE CLASS.

And that Class is the Mine Owners-Every body Else Must Suffer-The More Freely the Question is Debated the More Votes there will be for McKtuley-Bryan a Confidence Disturber

The New York Herald says: Mr. N. B Scott, of West Virginia, a member of the Republican National Executive committee, who has been on duty at the McKinley and Hobart headquarters, No. 1 Madison avenue, ever since they were opened and who has special charge of Southern States, was yesterday asked how the Republican managers regarded tho-money issue at this stage of the cam-paign. Mr. Scott made this reply:

"As a party we are perfectly willing to discuss the money question, believing that the more freely that phase of the issue is debated the more votes will be cast for McKinley and Hobart in No-

"If the government would provide "If the government would provide a revenue from customs duties equal to its wants, the demand for gold would cease and its flow to foreign countries, be checked. The wheels of industry in our own country would again turn, and give employment to wage agraries; a better home market would be produced for agricultural products, and our farmers, who are now complaining of hard times, would be benefited. The business of our railroads would increase, their earnings would be doubled, and foreign investors instead of throwing-facek upon us the would be doubled, and fareign investors instead of throwing-facek upon us the securities of this country, would be glad to send their money here to buy additional securities. The balance of trade, would, therefore, be turned in our favor, and business all over the country would be helped.

"The low price of all kinds of securitie and the general depression in business especially in manufacturing circles, is due to lack of confidence, and this lack of confidence has been brought about by being proclaimed by Beyan and his fel-lowers. If we can, on November 3, roll up such a majority that the people of this country will be convinced that there will be no further danger of a disturb-ance, in our money system and that our tariff laws will be adjusted on proper lines to meet the expenses of the govern-ment, and give adequate protection to American labor, the business of this country will shoot upward like a rocket and we will hear no more the cry of 'hard and we will hear no more the cry of 'hard and we will hear no more the cry of 'hard times.' . "Labor will be employed six days in he week at good American wares, and add in honest money. The farmer will secure a profitable home market for his products. The hearts of thousands what have been in enforced idleness will be gladdened and the patient wife and fam

While these are Mr. Scott's Individual views, and are not issued as an official utterance of the committee, they are shared by Mr. Hobart, the candidate for vice president, and are so directly in line with the statement made by Mr. Hanna to the Herald tgo or three weeks ago, as to show that the Republican managers are fully alive to the importance of the money issue.

Busy at Headquarters

The Republican headquarters presented a plusy score yesterday. There were ed a busy some yesterday. There were many callers on Messrs, Hobart and Scott, among them being former Secretary of State John W. Foster, of Indiana; Senator Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohlo ana; Senntor Joseph B, Foraker, of Ohlo General James H, Wilson, of Delaware; J, W, Bowden, of Virginia; F, G, Nied-ringhaus, of Missouri, and the Rev. Thomas A, Dixon. All these gentlemen were positive that the tide had turned and that McKinley would be lected. A letter was received by Gen, Osborne from Mr. Hanna that stated that he (Mr. Hanna) will be in Cleveland to-morrow, and will be in New York on Wednesday morning to remain a short time.

Mr. Hanns reports that the work of the campaign is going on well and that the sound money cause is gaining ground every day. From the national headquorters at Chicago, a large quantity of campaign literature is being distributed throughout the country. About fortyl different publications are ready and others are yet in press.

• The demand for literature is unprecedented, but will be fully met by the committee. Copies by the million have already been sent out.

WILL BE A REPUBLICAN.

The market was only moderately active and prices moved irregularly with a persistent downward trend. The fluctuations were in many instances quite marked. The truders were hearishly disposed on acount of the failure of the London marcket to respond to the improvement on the local exchange yesterday. Reported further cutting of railread rates, a stiffening in exchange figures and estimates of a heavy decrease in the receives of the associated banks on Saturday contributed to depress stocks.
